PROPERTY INFORMATION

The Georgia National Fairgrounds & Agricenter in Perry, Georgia is an 1,100-acre year-round event venue that hosts everything from livestock exhibitions and trade shows to the signature Georgia National Fair in October and the Georgia National Rodeo in February. In 2025 the Fair drew approximately 612,706 visitors over 11 days. The Georgia National Fairgrounds averages about 200 events annually attracting around 1 million visitors traveling from around the country and world.

Fast Facts:

1. The facility supports Georgia's agriculture/agribusiness mission by hosting livestock shows, equine shows, RV rallies, trade shows, dog shows, major expos and more!
2. The annual Georgia National Rodeo held in February is a PRCA sanctioned rodeo, with contestants earning points to compete in the National Finals Rodeo in November.
3. The Georgia National Fairgrounds hosts one of the largest equine events in the country, the National Barrel Horse Association Youth World Championships in July and Open and Senior World Championships in October. These 2 events alone bring over 93,000 visitors to the area.
4. Over 75% of the events held on site are free and open to the public!
5. Yearly Economic Impact: $133 million for the State of Georgia and $35 million in Houston County
 - Numbers are based on a 2023 study by UGA's Carl Vinson Institute of Government of the events from 2022
